Dear Ms. Holder:

This letter is clarification of the information concerning payments for administrative expenses contained in the referenced reports.

Our PAC is very small. All administrative matters have been handled by the volunteer treasurer and a volunteer assistant from their homes. Therefore, no expenses have been incurred for rent, utilities, salaries, etc. The expenses that have been incurred fall into the following categories: bank service charges, postage, and federal income taxes when applicable. Early in its formation a supply of stationery was purchased, but that was some time ago.

I hope the above explanation is responsive to the question regarding the limited administrative expenses incurred by the 505 King Avenue Committee.

As Edna Sothard mentioned to you, consideration is being given to changing the name of our PAC and the potential of becoming a separate segregated fund with a connected organization. With that occurrence, we will file an amended Statement of Organization.

Please contact me concerning this matter should further explanation be needed.

Sincerely,

J. R. Bahlmann
Treasurer
